THE SOLDIER AND SAILOR

JAPANESE PATRIOTIC SOCIETY FOR RELIEF OF THOSE MADE INDIGENT BY THE WAR.

Consul General Miki Saito has sent the Star a pamphlet setting forth the objects and organization of the "Teikoku Gunjin Jengokwai," the association for the Relief of those serving in the Army and Navy. The following is the statement of the objects of the association:

At this sublime moment, when our soldiers and mariners are fighting in defense of our country against one of the great neighboring powers, nobody can deny that we are in the face of an extremely serious crisis, the magnitude of which is unparalleled in the history of our past. It is unquestionably a moment when the whole nation ought to stand up in the cause of the public weal. The young and robust are with the flag; they have to sacrifice all their personal interests for their country's sake. They can not attend to their aged and decrepit parents, can not nurse their sick and dying wives, can not lend ear to the cries of hunger of their beloved children. Is there any one possessing the common feelings of humanity who can look with calm unconcern upon these pathetic scenes of heroic patriotism and self sacrifice? The state must of course take steps to provide for those that sacrifice their family interests on the altar of country, and we learn with pleasure that the government is now submitting suitable projects for the consideration of the competent authorities. But we have to take into consideration the fact that any measure of relief undertaken by the State must be subject to the restraints of rule and be governed by the general average of visible facts, so that account can not be taken of the special circumstances of each family and each member of a family. Besides, the amount thus granted in relief necessarily can not be superabundant. It might be enough for families with few members in remote village regions, but it would be evidently insufficient for large families residing in populous cities. Hence the necessity of resorting to private initiative and of supplementing these inequalities, correcting these inequalities, and endeavoring to meet the needs of each suffering family.

Compatriots, it is our duty to look to the welfare of the weak who are dear to those that are spilling their blood and risking their all in defense of the honor of the nation. Let us at least endeavor to enable them to face death in their country's cause with peaceful heart, assured that the spectre of starvation will not menace the loved ones they leave behind. This is at once the duty and the privilege of their fellow-countrymen, and we appeal to the public to co-operate heartily in the discharge of the solemn obligation.

We may add that though this Association has been founded in view of the present crisis, it may subsequently happen that the results of the work may suggest the advisability of continuing the Association as a permanent institution.

The founders of the Teikoku Gunjin Yengo Kwai are the following: Prince Shimazu, Prince Mori, Prince Tokugawa, Marquis Y. Tokugawa, Marquis S. Tokugawa, Marquis Mayeda, Marquis Hosokawa, Marquis Asano, Marquis Nabeshima, Marquis Shino, Marquis Date, Count Matsukata, Count Inouye, Viscount Tanaka, Baron Iwasaki, Baron Mitsu, Baron Shibusawa, J. ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE MEETING

ANNUAL GATHERING OF THIS ORGANIZATION — REPORT BY PRESIDENT WESTERVELT.

The annual meeting of the Anti-Saloon League was held at the Y. M. C. A. hall last night. Treasurer Bowen reports that the expenses for the year had been $244. President W. D. Westervelt in his report of the conditions confronting the League and of the work of the year said among other things:

"The third hindrance is really the most serious; that is the apathy of Government officials concerning the moral welfare of the public at large. This apathy frequently develops into open protection of saloons and gambling dens, as seemed to me the case in respect to the gambling den located at the corner of Fort and Hotel streets for many months. It is so difficult to prove a corrupt motive for such protection, that it is best to let that phase of the question drop. But the carelessness which allows such gambling dens to flourish weeks after attention has been called to them, is unquestionably criminal on the part of government officials. One of the thoughtful men of the city expressed the truth as follows: 'It seems as if those who are responsible are either very incapable or very corrupt.'"

The address of the evening was made by the Rev. Dr. Doremus Scudder.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, W. D. Westervelt; First Vice-President, Rev. G. L. Pearson; Second Vice-President, Mrs. J. M. Whitney; Treasurer, W. A. Bowen; Secretary, Rev. Mr. Snodgrass; Trustees, P. C. Jones, C. H. Atherton, and J. P. Cooke; Advisory Committee, G. L. Pearson, T. Richards, W. A. Bowen and pastor of Christian church; Law Enforcement, C. H. Dickey; Agitation Theodore Richards, Rev. O. Kumura, Rev. Motokawa; Legislative, G. L. Pearson; Local Protection, Rev. O. H. Gulick; Finance, W. A. Hadden and Dr. Mitamura.

Burns and Cuts—Slight injuries of this character are of frequent occurrence in almost every household. While they are not dangerous, except when blood poisoning results from the injury, they are often quite painful and annoying. They can be quickly healed by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It allays the pain almost instantly and heals the injured parts without matter being formed, which insures a cure in one-third the time that the usual treatment would require. It is the most perfect preparation in use for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises and like injuries. It should be applied with a feather, and before the parts become swollen if possible. For sale by all Dealers. Benson Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.

Don't Put Power INTO Line Shafting

A recent test in a sugar mill on one of the other islands shows that fifty per cent of the power went into running the line shaftings. Electric motors eliminate line shaftings and this is one instance of their economy of power. Wherever line shaftings are used there is a waste of power of from 25 to 60 per cent. A RETRIEVING ELLEPHANT.

General Sir Montague Gerard, in a recent volume tells this story of hunting with an elephant in India. "The best bags I made were fifty-three brace snipe and some teal one day between 1 a. m. and sunset and seventy-three brace and twenty-six duck and teal for one whole day, besides a couple of hours on the preceding afternoon when reconnoitering the ground. The only retriever one could safely employ was an elephant, not so much for fear of crocodiles as on account of tangled weeds which wind themselves round the limbs of a swimmer like the tentacles of an octopus."
